WORK EXPERIENCE

Jonathan Adler, Graphic Designer

New York, NY | Fall 2019–Spring 2022

Collaborated with the marketing & creative teams of this iconic interior design company to produce digital & print content that successfully promoted the brand. Directed photo shoots, designed social media & SMS animations, seasonal look books & more. Web sales increased 122%, email open & read rates improved as well as overall brand recognition.

Carolina Herrera, Freelance Art Director

New York, NY | September 2019

Freelance art director during the Fall 2019 Fashion Week show in Battery Park & opening of the new flagship store on Madison Ave. Designed digital & print collateral to support the events as well as the upcoming seasonal look book.

Everytown for Gun Safety, Students Demand Action Intern

New York, NY | Summer 2019

Mentored by creative director to develop branding of the non-profit's student-led gun safety activist group, Students Demand Action. Created a style guide that established the visual identity & designed social media graphics & animations that engaged their target audience, grew their online presence & united hundreds of grassroots groups around the country.

Brooks Brothers, Freelance Junior Graphic Designer

New York, NY | Fall 2018–Summer 2019

Collaborated with the creative team for America's oldest clothing retailer as a freelance junior graphic designer. Took the creative lead in producing assets for their international St. Jude's Children Hospital campaign as well as their Semi-Annual Sale. Consistently designed emails, web graphics, animations & store signage. Assisted the art director on photo shoots & helped ideate concepts with the creative director.

Dismantling Fear, Creative Director

Tucson, AZ | Spring 2018

Designed a literary magazine & website for the grant-funded project, Dismantling Fear: Voices of Tucson's Refugee Community. Worked with several University of Arizona professors, the Confluentcenter for Creative Inquiry & the International Rescue Committee to interview, photograph & share the stories of refugees within the Tucson community. The goal of the project was to help humanize the perception of immigrants by sharing their stories in a way that highlighted their individuality.

Shamrock Farms, Wildcat Local Roast Coffee Package Designer

Tucson, AZ | Spring 2018

Designed the University of Arizona's first licensed food product, Wildcat Local Roast Coffee, in collaboration with Shamrock Farms. Worked with both parties to develop a style guide for the production of a full line of coffee products. Utilized knowledge from working at the university to create a design that was on brand, yet unique. Products currently being sold on campus & at local Tucson grocery stores.

Spring Studios, Creative Intern

New York, NY | Summer 2017

Mentored by the creative directors of Spring Agency as they developed campaigns for luxury brands such as Marc Jacobs, Ralph Lauren & Tom Ford. Supported the entire creative process, from ideation to launch, of a new Rodan & Fields skincare product. Successfully fostered a positive relationship with clients & co-workers in a fast-paced NYC agency.
